Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 28 Nov 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Snow and rain clearing in the east, drier further west.

This Evening and Tonight:
A wintry mixture of snow, sleet and rain moves southwards across the east of the region through the evening. Turning drier and clearer behind this, but with the risk of frost and icy stretches forming. Feeling cold everywhere. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Monday:
A frosty start for many, but a dry day with occasional sunny spells, the best of these in the east. Still rather cold but turning milder in the far west. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
Windier again by Tuesday with outbreaks of rain, but also feeling a bit milder. Blustery and showery on Wednesday, though turning colder again. Showers largely easing through Thursday.
